What do I need to know before the week starts: 10/17-10/21

Wolfpack: Next week is Unity Day, Wednesday October 19th.

The purpose of Unity day is to draw attention to the fact that TOGETHER, WE can end bullying! Staff and Students are encouraged to wear Orange on Wednesday. In wolfpack and over the course of the week, we will have a few things we hope to accomplish: first, to help students understand the harm it causes; second, to be clear about types of bullying and the difference between them and "messaging around"; third, we hope to equip bystanders with appropriate strategies to support and stand up for victims.

Conferences: Thank you for your feedback! Anticipate your chance to book an appointment as early as the end of next week. We will be carving out 10-minute windows for conferences so that each teacher may be able to serve as many as 84 families over the two days through in-person, virtual and phone conferences. Those who need longer conversations or miss out on a needed conversation during conferences are encouraged to reach out to staff to schedule a meeting in the 30 minutes before or after school hours (8:15-2:45).
