What do I need to know before the week starts: 12/12-12/16

Winter Break means many things for many people.

A break from school/work (for some), a chance to visit or spend time with friends and family... everybody's list is unique but some of these things occur for many.

We are doing a performance check on Monday which students will bring home from Wolfpack. We hope this shows progress in what you targeted with your student and teacher during conferences. The form is not sent home as a directive, but it may be an opportunity to help close gaps even further.

Next week, we will offer some ideas of things to do with your middle schooler over the break—smiles are our target. If you have an idea we can share with others please send your ideas to mharris@sequimschools.org.
